A warm welcome awaits you at the Bull Inn which dates back to the fifteenth century. It's features include an original medieval fireplace, oak beams and a courtyard.

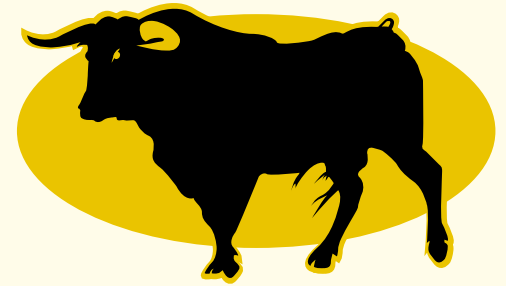

The Bull Inn is over 600 years old and offers charming accommodation with en-suite rooms. All the rooms are centrally heated and have tea & coffee making facilities, hairdryers and freeview flat screen TV.

Situated in an ancient square in the heart of the village of Little Walsingham, which has been the centre of Pilgrimages since 1061, and close to the picturesque North Norfolk Coast The Bull Inn is an ideal location for that relaxing all year round break.
